

Dear Editor –

In conjunction with the Pastel Society of Colorado's Annual Mile High International Exhibition and Sale, we are pleased to let you know that a local artist is included in this show. Your readers may be interested in hearing about this local person's work and their involvement with the exhibition. To that end, we enclose the following:

Announcing the Mile High International Exhibition, sponsored by the Pastel Society of Colorado, August 20, 2011, through September 19, 2011. This special collection of paintings from artists from around the country showcases the best in contemporary art in the pastel medium. With over 80 pieces of art on display, visitors will see florals, landscapes, portraits, still life and abstract works. Included in this impressive line up is work by local artist _____, whose painting _____ was selected from approximately 200 entries by nationally known, award winning juror, Richard McKinley.

The exhibition opens with an awards ceremony Saturday August 20, 2011, at the Curtis Arts & Humanities Center, .349 East Orchard Road, Greenwood Village, Colorado. The juror and exhibiting artists will be present. In addition to a wine and hors d'oeuvre reception, there will be a demonstration of pastel. All works will be available for purchase.

Admission to the exhibit is free, and the public is invited and encouraged to attend. Exhibition and sale hours are Mon-Fri 10:00 am – 4:00 pm.
